

In this true story, Jessica Mast tells of the trials she and her late husband endured through the months of his illness and hospitalizations. Called by God as his caregiver, she shares all that she witnessed and experienced as she stood by his side day by day while clenching to the hope that God would heal him. However, when this illness took his life, Jessica was left a young widow at the age of 25. Buried in her grief and despair, she didn't know how she would survive not only this incredible loss but also the challenge of her faith in her beloved Savior, Jesus Christ. While feeling lost and alone, Jessica began to realize a new dimension of the love and heart of God. Join her on this journey of triumph over all that came against her when she felt that all was lost and see how God comes through as only He can.
